Assistant Att'y Gen. Dismissed

Receives Letter From President Roosevelt Charging 'Insubordination'

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—(P)—President Roosevelt fired Assistant Attorney General Norman Littell today and Littell promptly asserted the situation had prevented appointment of "a Tommy Corcoran henchman as his successor."

Littell received reporters at the department of justice shortly after the department released a letter from the president dismissing Littell for "insubordination."

The assistant attorney general has had a wide open split with his chief, Attorney General Francis Biddle, accusing Biddle of having interfered in one justice department case in favor of Thomas O. (Tommy the Cork) Corcoran, former presidential intimate now in private law practice.

In a prepared statement distributed at his news conference, the 45-year-old former head of the justice department's land division said:

"In regard to the statement which the attorney general has just issued, it is necessary for me to say that his use of adjectives regarding my statements to the Mead (war investigating) committee, such as 'reckless and unfounded' do not answer facts. I have stated the facts. I am wholly satisfied with the public service which I have rendered in this matter and a complete victory for good government has been won.

"Congress is warned."

"To state only one consequence, the planned appointment of my successor in this great revision of the department of justice will not now be a Tommy Corcoran henchman because both the chief executive and the judiciary committees of congress are fully warned."

"I could not have resigned and abandoned this division with its high integrity and splendid personnel without making them secure against this eventuality."

Concerning Mr. Roosevelt's action in dismissing him after he had rejected Biddle's request for a resignation, Littell said in a separate statement released after his news conference:

"I can understand perfectly the president's action. As commander in chief in time of war as president of the United States, he cannot possibly go into the details of a matter like this. He must stand on the administrative practice of supporting the superior officer. I believe I have served the president well."

"In leaving the government I am profoundly grateful that I have had an opportunity for these years of service in time of war. My motives have been very simple throughout. As I have told the Mead committee, we are at war to preserve democratic government. Our men are not dying to preserve poor government but to preserve good government—faithful to the public interest conducted for the benefit of all the people. . . . I have done my best."

Littell said Attorney General Biddle had ordered him (Littell) not to hold a news conference in his office. Littell said that he was disregarding the order because he had already told newsmen that he would meet them and that he did not wish to adjourn the conference "to the sidewalk."

Biddle, hearing of this statement, denied he had vetoed the conference.

Sedalian's Trial Halted Temporarily

OPA Charges J. E. Noel Overcharged In Truck Sale

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 30.—(P)—Federal Judge John Caskie Collett today stopped temporarily proceedings in an OPA case, ordered the jury from the courtroom and charged that one of two principal witnesses had committed perjury.

Banging the bench with his right hand, the judge said: "Gentlemen, there has been a bald-faced perjury committed in this case." He pointed a finger at Earl Alfrey, Sedalia, Mo., who had testified he had paid what he termed $758.95 above the ceiling price for a truck he said he bought from J. E. Noel, also of Sedalia.

"Do you want to modify or correct in any way your testimony relating to the cashing of a check," Judge Collett asked.

"No sir," Alfrey replied.

Noel was asked to take the witness stand. He asked Noel the same question and the reply was "no."

Talks To Attorneys
The judge then called attorneys before him, told them "it is my duty to let you know perjury has been committed. Do you care to let the case stand on its present record, because if you do, a thorough and complete investigation will be requested by me, and with all the strength of the government which is vested in me to find the true facts. Misrepresentation is made not only against the court, but it is also made against the jury and attorneys trying the case."

The jury was recalled and the court gave his instructions to the jury. The court made no reference to what had happened outside its presence.

A suit to collect triple damages of $2,276.85 for alleged overcharge on the sale of the truck was begun earlier in Judge Collett's court.

Cashed a Check
The office of price administration contended the ceiling price for the truck in question was $841.05 and Alfrey testified he paid Noel $1600 for the vehicle with two checks, one for $825 and another for $775.

Noel testified that he sold the truck to Alfrey for $825 and the second check was one he cashed so that Alfrey might use the money to buy merchandise in Iowa.

Sedalians On Stand
Four Sedalians testified in the case Wednesday and returned home that night. They are Roy Snyder, chairman of the Ration Board, C. L. Carter, Felix Sullivan and Ray Hatfield.

Noel operates a filling station at High Point crossing.
Eugene O'Keefe of Kansas City represents the OPA and Fred F. Wesner of Sedalia is Noel's attorney.

Referring to the case the Kansas City Times this morning stated:

"Two or three checks, a bank loan of $700, a mortgage, a personal note and cash all were involved yesterday in explanations of payment for a 1940 Ford truck bought from J. E. Noel of Sedalia, last December 8.

"A federal jury in Judge John Caskie Collett's court is hearing allegations by the office of price administration that Noel overcharged the buyer $758.95 in the sale. Treble damages of $2,276.85 are asked. The case will continue this morning."

Mortgage on the Truck

"Earl Alfrey of Sedalia, who bought the truck, contended he paid $1,600 for it when the ceiling price was $841.05. At Noel's request he told the court, he wrote two checks, one for $825 and the other for $775. Also he arranged at (Please turn Page 2, Col. 2)

Russell, district deputy grand exalted ruler for the Southwest District, B.P.O. Elks, told the Sedalia members of Lodge No. 125 at their regular meeting Wednesday night.

Besides supporting the war loan campaigns, Elks have added materially to the happiness of men and women in the armed services through recreational centers in all parts of the country, he said, and urged that this good work continue without diminishing zeal. There must be no relaxation of the tremendous effort until our enemies are beaten to their knees and our loved ones return home once again, he declared.

Concluding his talk he said that "Under the guidance of the Elks War Commission the lodge, through its 650,000 members has been active in veterans' hospital service, recruiting flying cadets, army engineers and Seabees, maintaining 119 recreational centers for boys in the armed services, sent more than 16 million cigarettes and 700,000 packages of tobacco to boys in the services, furnished more than 65,000 pairs of slippers for disabled servicemen, and have begun on an extensive rehabilitation program for returning members of the armed forces."

Mr. Russell was making his annual visit to the Sedalia lodge as a representative of the Grand Lodge. He is a past exalted ruler of the Warrensburg Lodge of Elks.

Following the meeting, at which several new applicants were initiated, a lunch of turkey sandwiches was served.

Searching for Owner of Car

Efforts are being made to locate the owner of a 1936 Ford coach found parked on West Broadway, between Grand and Quincy avenues, Wednesday, by State Trooper Lloyd Amos. The car had stalled and was pulled to police headquarters where it is being held for the owner.

In the car were several valuable articles which the police are taking care of until the owner can be located.

Residents on Broadway, seeing the car parked there, and apparently no one around it, called the highway patrol to have it taken away.

Mrs. John F. Jud and son, route 3, Sedalia and Mrs. C. B. Samuels and daughter, 1903 South Stewart street, dismissed.

Recovering from Battle Wounds

U.S. ARMY GENERAL HOSPITAL, England — Attacked by German heavy artillery firing from forts in the Siegfried line near Metz, Pvt. Kenneth A. Goodwin, 27 of 1208 South Massachusetts avenue, Sedalia, Mo., received a wound in the chest from which he is now recovering in this United States army general hospital in England.

"Pvt. Goodwin's wound is healing rapidly and he should soon be able to go back to duty," said his ward surgeon, Capt. A. L. Girardin of Ft. Myer, Va.

"We were up front at night working on one of our half-tracks that had been hit during the day," explained Pvt. Goodwin, a mechanic in a field artillery battalion.

Leaving Sullivan County Out

JEFFERSON CITY, Nov. 30.—(P)—Gov. Forrest C. Donnell said today his office had begun counting the official abstracts of the presidential vote in the Nov. 17 election from all counties except laggard Sullivan county and would certify Missouri's 15 presidential electors tomorrow without the vote from Sullivan.

New Hours for Ration Office

Open Daily 9:00 To 4:00, Closed During Lunch Hour

The Pettis county ration board office located on the first floor of the court house will be open every day, Monday through Saturday, but will close each day during the noon hour, according to Miss Thekla Young, chief clerk. The new hours, beginning Friday, December 1, will be from nine a. m. to noon and one to four p. m. each day, during which time all persons seeking the services of the ration board will be taken care of as the clerks are able, she added.

All used rubber tires classed as Grade III are now ration free, according to Charles O. Botz, chairman of the tire rationing panel of the Pettis County Ration board. A certificate to purchase any of these tires is not necessary, Botz said. Grade I passenger tires are still critical as far as our allotment is concerned, he said, this is because there still remains a great backlog of applications that have not been able to be supplied with tires. Truck tires 750x20 or smaller have been allotted to Pettis county in a smaller quantity than usual, he said, due to the seasonal tapering-off trend in the tire industry.

Recapping of worn tires when possible is still a major requirement according to the regulations in effect, Botz added. In order to conserve rubber, applicants who fail to recap should be charged with abuse and neglect and the application is delayed for action until others have been acted upon by the tire board.

Pfc. Wulff has been in the service since March 13, 1943 and served in the campaigns of the U. S. forces in Africa and Italy and lastly in France.

Before entering service he was employed by the Tullis-Hall company here.

Yanks Take Strategic Hamlet; B-29 Bombs Start Tokyo Fires

Over Enemy Capital Twice in Five Hours Wednesday, All Planes Return

By The Associated Press
All Superfortresses which participated in the third B-29 strike on Tokyo Wednesday night returned to their base, a 20th Airforce communique said today.

In the three raids on Japan's capital, two superfortresses have been lost. The crew of one of these was rescued by a destroyer.

Returning airmen reported that anti-aircraft fire was meager and inaccurate. Results were not observed because of a cloud cover.

Fire-scarred Tokyo, its defenses admittedly penetrated twice in five hours Wednesday (U. S. time) by Superfortresses, is getting a foretaste of a campaign "to destroy the heart and the nerve centers of Japan's war machine." Gen. H. H. Arnold, commanding general of the army air forces, placed that interpretation last night at Kansas City on a gathering drive which has put bombers over Tokyo on three days within a week.

This air war on Japan proper had these ramifications:
Fires started Wednesday raged for a considerable time in Tokyo. Incensed Tokyo radio announcers fumed that any Yank flier who parachuted after "blindly" bombing Tokyo would be "killed on the spot by the angry Japanese people."

Holds Cabinet Meeting

Premier Gen. Kuniaki Koiso held a cabinet meeting yesterday because—to quote Tokyo radio—"in due course various bottlenecks are expected to appear with many unexpected resulting effects."

In whipsaw action along the bombing road to Tokyo, Liberators from Saipan cratered the Volcano Island airfield, the enemy has been using to send fighters in raids on the Superfortress bases at Saipan.

Today (Thursday) a Japanese Imperial Headquarters communique, broadcast from Tokyo and recorded in the United States by the Federal Communications Commission, gave this unconfirmed version:

Twenty Superfortresses attacked "several waves" from about midnight to 4:30 a. m. Thursday (Tokyo time).

"The fires that continued to rage in part of the areas affected . . . we put under control at 5:30 a. m."

General Arnold, who has been assured by Gen. Douglas MacArthur that the Tokyo raids have diverted Japanese attention from the Philippines campaign, said in an address at Kansas City last night:

"First with our B-29s, then, as we get bases closer to Japan, with our Fortresses and Liberators, we're going to destroy the heart and the nerve centers of Japan's war machine."

"Japan will have little industry left when our army and navy air forces complete their tasks of destruction. . . . They've asked for it and they're going to get it."

Tokyo radio asserted the bombings were "indiscriminate" and caused little damage to "important establishments" but an air force spokesman at Washington emphasized indiscriminate bombings was not in the American plans.

Postpone Amateur Fights at SAAF

The amateur boxing show which was scheduled for Friday night at the Sedalia Army Air Field gym to boost the War Bond sales at the base, has been postponed until Monday night, December 4. The same card of boxers will be on the program that night.

TODAY on the Warfronts

By the Associated Press
A Japanese imperial communique claimed today Japanese planes sank a battleship and three large transports Friday in the second assertedly successful attack this week on American shipping in Leyte gulf of the Philippines. There was no Allied confirmation.

A communique yesterday asserted that on Monday Japanese planes sank a battleship, three cruisers and four transports, and damaged another battleship or large cruiser and a transport. Gen. Douglas MacArthur acknowledged such an attack was made and said some unspecified damage was inflicted.

Survivors, Among Hitler's Best SS Troops, Trod Thru Mud to Prison

IMMENDORF, Germany, Nov. 30.—(P)—Virtually all the U. S. Ninth army was along the Roer river tonight along a 15 to 20 mile front.

American doughboys entered both Flossdorf and Roer-dorf southeast of Linnich on the Roer and artillery knocked out four more Tigers and Panther tanks near Beeck.

By William Fry

LONDON, Nov. 30.—(P)—Americans of the Ninth army captured strategic Linnich today in an extension of the great Allied offensive which was cracking the Roer river line shielding Cologne and Dusseldorf.

Farther south, the U. S. First Army finally won the fortified towns of Lamersdorf and Grosshau in its drive out of the dank Hurtgen forest.

Linnich lies 14½ miles from the Prussian arsenal and rail city of Munchen Gladbach (pop. 127,000) and 28 miles from Dusseldorf.

The Ninth also fought in the streets of burning Beeck nearby. Both Beeck and Linnich are on the railroad leading to Munchen Gladbach. Survivors of the Linnich garrison, made up of Hitler's best SS troops, were trodding through the floods and mud to prison cages. They had yielded before the American flame throwers, tanks, artillery and bombs hurled against the hamlet.

Many Dead Germans

Infantry driving into the Tiger tank nests in Beeck found more dead Germans on the street than in any other town yet entered on the Cologne front. Prisoners said their comrades were felled by white phosphorus shells which filled the skies before dawn.

During the night, the Germans tried vainly to regain high ground dominating the Roer river bastion of Linnich just east of Beeck. Artillery, particularly Tiger-busting eight-inchers smashed most of the attacks.

A German military spokesman was quoted by the Berlin radio today as saying Gen. Eisenhower had thrown 70 divisions into the great offensive on the western front.

This suggested a minimum of 850,000 combat troops were opposing the outnumbered Germans along the whole front.

Army Into Open

The official DNB dispatch placed the crucial battlefield in the Aachen area and said the fighting was in progress in a sector 16 miles wide and nine deep. This tallied roughly with Allied front reports.

The Nazis asserted that British attacks south of the Dutch town of Helmond were repulsed "before the enemy was able to launch his apparently planned big offensive."

Men of the U. S. First army burst into the open from the pines of the Hurtgen forest, where hundreds from both sides have died since mid-October.

Gains were scored along the entire 25-mile front on the Cologne plain east of Aachen and Gellenkirchen where the 12th army group of Lt. Gen. Omar Bradley, architect of the Normandy breakthrough, was battling behind flame-throwers, tanks and frightful artillery and air barrages. The Germans declared the combat to be one of the greatest battles of attrition in history. The new Ninth army attack won high ground dominating the key town of Linnich.

Be Careful of Rabbit Fever

According to Dr. James Stewart, state health commissioner, tularemia (rabbit fever) is still on its decline in Missouri. A total of 19 cases were reported in 1943 and only 14 cases reported to date in 1944.

The disease, usually serious and sometimes fatal, generally can be avoided by the practice of a few simple precautions, according to the commissioner. Dr. Stewart urged hunters, market men, housewives and others who handle wild rabbits to practice the following:

1. Keep your bare hands out of a wild rabbit. Rubber gloves offer sure protection; but remember that sharp bone fragments can pierce a rubber glove and the hand.
2. Cook wild game, especially rabbits, thoroughly, leaving no rare portions or red juice even next to the bone. Thorough cooking kills the germs and renders infected meat harmless.
3. Use soap and water liberally after contact with rabbits. Use of disinfectants is recommended.
4. Do not use a sick rabbit for food. Rabbits that appear sluggish in the field may have the disease and should not be handled at all.

Johnny Mercer, Song writer, Writes Rival to 'Mairzy Doats'

HOOLYWOOD, Nov. 30.—(P)—Move over little lambs and give this newcomer a seat. "Mairzy Doats" has a first class rival. Songwriter Johnny Mercer has written what may be tomorrow's most popular song.

There is a catchiness and appeal about the off-meter tune and the words make a little sense.

The number is "Ac-cent-u-ate the Pos-i-tive."

Johnny was digging along Memory Lane, and working against a deadline, when he wrote the lyrics. "Accentuate" has been played on the air but three times, but already it is catching on as a hit east and west. The film in which it is featured, "Here Come the Waves," is still in the cutting room and will not be released until Dec. 27.

Mercer and Harold Arlen, who wrote the music, were stuck for a novelty number to round out the movie score, Mercer explained.

"I heard that expression — 'Accentuate the positive, eliminate the negative' — years ago," he said. "I don't remember exactly when or where. With a beginning like that, the rest of it practically wrote itself, and we finished the number in one afternoon for Bing Crosby and Sonny Tufts to sing.

Dari Ann says

"Way-down-south" folks like good old Sweet Potato Pie. It tastes so nearly like pumpkin pie you can hardly tell the difference. In fact, some say it's even better. But, of course, made with DARICRAFT both are better. What is DARICRAFT? Why, that's the new evaporated milk folks are raving about. It's really wonderful. Here are recipes for both Pumpkin and Sweet Potato Pie, both made with DARICRAFT. Clip them out and try them.

Pumpkin Pie
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups DARICRAFT
2/3 cup sugar
1/8 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon ginger
1 1/2 cups mashed cooked pumpkin

Sweet Potato Pie
2 eggs
1 cup DARICRAFT
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 cup salt
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon ginger
2 cups sieved cooked sweet potatoes

Beat eggs and milk slightly, add dry ingredients which have been well blended. Add pumpkin or sweet potatoes and mix well. Line pie plate with pastry and pour in filling. Bake in hot oven, 450°, 10 minutes, reduce temperature to 325° and bake 35 minutes or until knife inserted in center comes out clean. Cool. Whip 1/2 cup chilled DARICRAFT until stiff and spread over pie just before serving.

DARICRAFT is simply marvelous in cooking and for whipping. Of course, the secret of whipping is to have the DARICRAFT ice-cold and beat rapidly. DARICRAFT is rich looking, rich tasting, but not rich like real whipping cream. Children can eat it. Get some today and try it, won't you? For sale at all good grocers.

DAILY WASHINGTON

Merry-go-Round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 — Now that Stalin has put the Japanese on notice for war, calling them an aggressor nation, another chapter regarding Jimmy Doolittle's raid on Tokyo can be told.

After dropping its bomb load on Tokyo, one of the planes developed a leak in its gas line. Aware that he could not make friendly Chinese territory, the pilot set his course for Soviet Siberia, figuring he might barely be able to reach dry land. Internment, he figured, was better than execution. When the fuel gave out, he had no idea where he was, but landed on the best flat stretch he could find.

As the crew of the plane piled out, a column of tanks appeared over a nearby hill. The airmen climbed back into their plane and prepared to make a fight for it, but finally saw the Soviet red star on the leading tank and got out of the plane again.

The pilot walked forward to talk with the Soviet major who jumped out of the leading tank. Using English, gestures, and one or two words of Russian, the pilot tried to explain how he happened to be there.

Finally the Russian officer stopped him. In fairly good English he said: "Yes, we know all about the bombing of Tokyo. And we knew one plane was in trouble and might be heading this way. We came out to see if we could find you."

Strategic Withdrawal

Probably 2½-year-old Marvin Pulven, of Mason City, Mich., has no intention of eating that mallet he brandishes at left, above, but his parents wouldn't be surprised if he tried it. He's pictured after having a toy soldier which he swallowed removed from his esophagus. Child was flown to Chicago, where surgeons at the Children's Memorial Hospital removed the soldier, seen lodged in his gullet in X-ray photo at right.

The bomber crew started to climb into the tanks when suddenly another column of tanks appeared from the opposite direction. A Jap officer came running toward the Russians, shouting, "This is Japanese territory. We demand the surrender of the Americans."

The Russian major immediately dug out his maps, insisting he was on Soviet soil. The argument raged in German for several minutes, until finally the Jap angrily stalked off, ordering his tanks to fire. This was answered by a volley from the Russian tanks, both aiming at the sky. The Russian tanks then drove on, leaving the airplane behind.

They had been going at a fast clip for about half an hour, when the Russian major turned to the American pilot and said:

"I now welcome you to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics." The border had just been crossed.

The American crew was extremely well treated in Russia, and was not held long. Shortly after arrival, the entire crew was flown to Alaska by Clyde Pangborn and thence came back to the United States.

The fact that the crew was not interned was not kept sufficiently secret and before long, reached Tokyo. A protest was lodged in Moscow. The Russians replied that the U. S. airmen were being held and that, as a neutral, Russia had no choice but to hold them.

The Japs then asked to be taken to the prison camp where the bomber crew was imprisoned. The Russians, however, retreated behind governmental secrecy, replying, "Of course, you know that no foreigners have been allowed in that part of Siberia for years. It's fifteen years since any foreigners have gone near the section where this prison camp is located."

FDR and Henry Kaiser

President Roosevelt had a revealing conversation with shipbuilder Henry Kaiser at the White House recently and got some real low-down on the prospects of a sharp increase in unemployment next year unless prompt measures are taken to prevent it.

Kaiser, who is enthusiastic about Roosevelt's hopes of "60,000,000 jobs after the war," rushed into the White House with a post-war job program of his own. He told FDR he could swing it if he got a governmental go-ahead on re-conversion.

Roosevelt told Kaiser he was delighted to hear of his plans, but asked if Kaiser wasn't getting a little too far out in front, with the war still in progress.

"No, Mr. President," said Kaiser. "We've got to go to work on this right away. I may have half my shipyard closed down by June, so unless I and other war producers can guarantee our workers jobs, our manpower is going to leave us. In fact, we've lost too many men already. Our workers are trying to get into peacetime work even though the war is a long way from being over. They don't want to be left holding the bag."

"But Henry," said the president, "your contracts run all through next year, don't they?"

"Oh, no," said Kaiser. "Most of them are scheduled now to wind up in June or July. Besides, they all have cancellation clauses and we don't want to be caught short."

Time for Reconversion

Kaiser then explained how the thousands of other contracts may collapse next year on short notice, putting millions of workers on the street.

In reply, Roosevelt quoted War Mobilizer Jimmy Byrnes to the effect that there was plenty of time to plan for reconversion.

To this Kaiser declared that Byrnes was over optimistic and probably hadn't been able to study the picture carefully enough. Kaiser also pointed out that a good business man tapers off his work several months before a contract ends, so that even when contracts last until July, lay-offs start in March.

The upshot of all this was twofold. First, Roosevelt authorized Kaiser to make an appeal to war workers to stay on the job, assure them that adequate consideration would be given to keeping them at work in the post-war period. Second, Roosevelt promised he would review the reconversion picture himself and take prompt action to see that industry is given greater opportunity to plan for speedy reconversion.

Big fly in the reconversion ointment is that Byrnes is overloaded with work, plans to quit after the defeat of Germany, can't get his heart or his teeth into the post-war side of his job.

Until recently, Byrnes hoped to retire at once as "Assistant President," didn't feel he would have anything at all to do with reconversion.

Pvt. Eual H. Whiteman, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Whiteman, 1515 South Stewart avenue, has won the right to wear the wings of the United States Army Paratroopers. He has completed his training and is somewhere in France. Pvt. Whiteman left with the Missouri National Guards, 128th Field Artillery in 1940.

In The Service

Pfc. Howard T. Brown, a cook with the ninth infantry division on Leyte, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Brown, of Sedalia, R. F. D. No. 2, was one of a staff of six cooks under Sergeant Lazaro Bahena, distinguishing themselves in the battle of Catmon Hill.

As a result of their bravery and gallantry the corps was lauded recently in a message from General MacArthur to Lt. Gen. Robert C. Richards, Jr., commanding army forces in the Pacific Ocean areas. This outfit fought and cooked at time of the battle when mud bogged down vehicles carrying food and water to the front line forces.

They walked through swamps knee deep and had to swim a river as Jap snipers potted, at them with their guns.

They negotiated the river by forming a human chain, moving cans and boxes from one to the other until all were safely ashore. Pfc. Brown before entering the service was employed by the Meadow Gold Ice Cream company and later worked at the SAAF, before entering service. He entered service November 2, 1942, going overseas last July.

A NINTH AIR FORCE THUNDERBOLT FIGHTER BASE, Belgium—Promotion of Private First Class Benjamin H. Morrison, Sedalia, Missouri, from the grade of private has been announced by headquarters of Colonel Carroll W. McCollip's P-47 Thunderbolt fighter group.

Pfc. Morrison, son of Mrs. Lulu T. Morrison, 733 East Third street, Sedalia, is an airplane armorer in a group, which is operating in close support of American ground forces as a unit of a tactical air command of the U. S. Ninth Air Forces.

Rocket-firing Thunderbolts sweeping low to blast the German tanks, pillboxes and supply trains carry a personal punch from Cpl. William T. Sedgewick, whose wife resides at 601 West Fourth street, according to a communication received from an Air Service Command Depot in England.

He pioneered the installation of the rocket apparatus on the first P-47 fighters to carry the weapon. Captured Nazi prisoners describe the rocket attacks as among the most terrifying in the Allied bag of tricks.

Cpl. Sedgewick is an aircraft mechanic in the top ranking hangar at the largest Air Service Command in Britain where all records have been broken overhauling combat planes.

Before he entered service in July 1943 he was employed by the American Disinfecting company.

S/Sgt. E. E. Howerton, 22, whose wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. L. Howerton, reside at 1534 South Grand avenue, has arrived at Army Air Forces Redistribution Station No. 2, in Miami Beach, Fla., for reassignment processing after completing a tour of duty outside of continental United States. He will remain there about two weeks to determine his new assignment, and for rest and recreation.

Sgt. Howerton was a B-24 mechanic and gunner in the European theater of war.

The father, twenty-two years old when his picture was made, spent eleven months in service in the United States and eleven months in France during World War I. The son, 18 years old, entered service July 18, 1944.

Wilbur Kenneth has done all of his training so far at Fort Sill and says he likes it. He sometimes goes to the old post where his father was quartered 27 years ago. He wrote last week that he expected to get a furlough and come home for a visit around December 1.

FESTUS, Mo., Nov. 30—(P)—Marvin Becker, 15, borrowed the family car, took the Becker shotgun and went out to get himself a deer. Adults took one look at that shotgun, said, no, thanks they'd rather not hunt with him. But Marvin didn't care. He'd made his shotgun pretty nearly as good as a rifle. Sure enough, the second day he bagged a 7-point buck, a 265-pounder.

His ammunition: A shotgun shell from which he had pried the shot and replaced—With a ball bearing from a junked automobile.

Southerners To Score for Army--Navy

Army to Workout in Municipal Stadium Friday Afternoon

BALTIMORE, Nov. 30—(P)—If anyone plows a touchdown furrow through the newly-sodded landscape of Municipal stadium Saturday for Army or Navy, it's more than an even bet he'll be from south of the Mason-Dixon line.

For the eleven from West Point and Annapolis are banking on the ball-toters from Dixie in their climactic contest, on the outcome of which army's national championship hopes are hanging.

Bob Jenkins, Navy's plunging-passing punting paragon, may not be able to toe the starting line—the toe being infected—but even with the No. 1 Middle threat on the sidelines the Annapolis aggregation will present plenty of pigskin talent from the sunny southland.

Up there in the first two backfields for Navy will be such luminaries as Bill Barron of Lewisburg, Tenn.; Fred Earley of Parkersburg, W. Va.; Ralph Ellsworth of San Antonio, Tex.; Hal Hamberg of Lenoire, Ark.; Clyde Scott of Smackover, Ark.; and Bruce Smith of Miami, Fla. Jenkins, if he goes, won't hurt the southern cause a bit, for he's from Talladega, Ala.

Army's top threats in the touchdown category include Felix Blanchard of Bishopville, S. C.; Bobby Dobbs of Frederick, Okla.; Dale Hall of Parsons, Kas.; Ed Kenna of Jackson, Miss.; Capt. Tom Lombardo of St. Louis, Mo.; Johnny Minor of Tahoka, Tex.; and Arnold Tucker of Miami, Fla.

A couple of northerners and two west coasters, somehow sneaked into the point-counting corps, including Army's Dean Sensenbaurer of Uhrichsville, O.; Dick Waterhouse of Washenaw, Mich.; Johnny Sauer of Dayton, O.; and Glenn Davis of Los Angeles; and Navy's Dick Duden of Englewood, N. J.; Jim Pettit of Portland, Ore.; Joe Sullivan of Pittsburgh and Al Walton of Pasadena, Calif.

Army will move in Friday for a workout at the stadium at 2 p. m., but Navy, which has appeared in the Municipal layout several times this year, will not appear until just before game time Saturday.

Cards Will Dominate Baseball, Says Marion

ATLANTA, Nov. 30—(P)—The matter of baseball supremacy for the next few years can be settled here and now, in the opinion of Martin (Slat) Marion.

The St. Louis Cardinals shortstop predicted today that the world champions would "dominate" baseball in the National League, perhaps in both leagues, for five or six years.

"We have enough players in the armed forces to make up another pennant-winning team, especially pitchers," said this year's most valuable player award winner. "The club has resources that will keep us up there for years to come."

Martin, visiting his family in Atlanta, said the Cards last season had perhaps the only "pre-war team" in the majors, while the others were "way below par."

"Our club was good enough," he observed "to have kept up, say, four years ago in our league. The American League had a lot of well-matched teams, but they were not settled until the last day. Ours was sewed up early."

The Georgia-born infielder is doing a little postwar planning for himself, too.

"Me, I intend to keep on playing until these pins give out."

YOU GOTTA THINK QUICK

By Stanley Paley Copyright, 1944, NEA Service, Inc.

THAT afternoon I went to the look to see Rugg. The moment he looked up at me I realized what a tough job lay ahead. He was sullen and fat-faced, and about two years older than I. If he made the same impression on the jury as he did on me, he was headed straight for the chair.

It was a stunt to get him to talk. Maybe he felt I didn't like him. Or maybe he was suspicious of people in general. Finally I became irritated.

"Look here, Rugg," I said. "Your neck doesn't mean a damn thing to me, but Boggio's does. And you'll do as I tell you or else you'll burn, so help me!"

That put him in a receptive frame of mind and I realized I'd hit on the right psychological approach. He began to loosen up, and from then on I got everything I wanted. But the more he told me, the gloomier the outlook became. From a strictly legal standpoint the guy hadn't a leg to stand on.

There was one fortunate thing, however. He hadn't talked after his arrest. He'd known enough to keep his trap shut when the cops questioned him. The rest was up to me.

DURING the following weeks I lost plenty of weight. The responsibility suddenly shoved on my shoulders got me down. I couldn't eat and I couldn't sleep. Boggio would get in touch with me regularly to find out how I was doing. He'd call up and ask to meet me somewhere, or else he'd come to my place. For some reason he didn't want to see me at his apartment any more, and I figured he was afraid of me. I might find out his connection with the case. That suited me. I had no particular desire to run into Boggio again.

I was in a spot. I hadn't the faintest idea what line of defense

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—(P)—Ever hear of people who wanted to give away money? ... That's getting to be a hot subject in minor league baseball and one which will be argued over again at next week's Buffalo convention.

Last year the Southern Association asked that Class A-1 leagues be allowed the privilege of paying bonuses to players other than first-year men. ... Leagues of lower classification asked to be declared in and the whole business was voted down. ... This year the Southern is trying a new tack by asking the right to pay bonuses for signing players coming out of the armed forces and the Atlanta club proposes giving the player his choice between a cash bonus and ten per cent of the price when he is sold into a higher class. ... Looks as if they might be worried about the player shortage—only the same league wants to raise player limits right down the line so that clubs can absorb returning service men without hardship.

First Stringers

When three members of the Pampa, Texas, high school football team received a call from their draft board to report November 30 it called for some fast work by the coach. ... November 30 is Thanksgiving in Texas and the day of Pampa's big game. ... So the coach pulled some strings to keep strings on his first stringers and by promising to deliver the boys to the Oklahoma City induction station in time for their examinations, he was allowed to keep them for the game.

degree. I was afraid he was going to start blabbing about Boggio so I motioned to him. He got my signal and slowly sank back in his chair again.

Anderson was all through. I cleared my throat and stood up. For about thirty seconds I didn't say anything. I merely stared at one of the four women in the jury. I'd picked her out at the beginning of the trial. Her name was Hannah Twichell and she was a motherly housewife with two chins. I'd chosen her because she had an air of authority about her and because it was plain she didn't like Anderson. She'd asked the judge a question and Anderson had barked at her. It was a foolish thing to do. Unless I was completely wrong, Hannah Twichell was going to be a powerful ally of mine. And as Hannah Twichell went, so would the three other women go.

My plan of defense was simple. I was going to counteract evidence with emotion. I was going to make Rugg appear the poor, bewildered victim of a harsh social order whose poverty-stricken childhood had forced him into a life of crime. I would show how he tried time and again to get out of the rackets and go straight but how he'd only gotten in deeper and deeper. And then I'd use his murder of Simms as a sort of grand finale, the supreme effort of a desperate man to regain his freedom and integrity. Wrong, of course, but really an act of self-defense. ...

THE jury reached a verdict at exactly 3:20 that evening. I looked at my watch as they filed back into the box. They'd been out for more than four hours and I'd already contemplated the grim prospect of a deadlock and a retrial. If that had happened Rugg would have been convicted for I could never have repeated my performance of that afternoon.

I thought it was a terrific stroke of luck when they turned in a verdict of not guilty. It's a funny thing about life. Sometimes you don't know what was good and what was bad until the curtain rings down. And then it's too late. (To Be Continued)

No Change in Ration Points
WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The OPA said today current food point values will be unchanged when the new ration period begins next Sunday.
The war food administration rejected OPA proposals to put most point-free meat and some major canned vegetables back on the ration list.
The OPA announcement made no mention of sharp differences between the two agencies over basic rationing policy. These developed when OPA urged more food rationing, claiming that short supplies and heavy sales warranted it. Today's announcement was a victory for the present for WFA.
The dispute has been referred to stabilization director Fred M. Vinson. Should he side with OPA point changes may be made in mid-December, an OPA spokesman said.
WFA, in turning down OPA's appeal, asserted the overall food supply is good and that substitutes are available for any scarce items. It contended high consumption should be encouraged to avoid a large food surplus on V-E (Victory in Europe) day.
OPA acknowledged today that the supply of meats—rationed and non-rationed—available for civilians in December is expected to average 281,850,000 lbs. weekly, or 5.4 per cent more than the average this month.

Ocean Liner Viveroy Sunk
LONDON, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The Daily Mail said today the 200,000 ton ocean liner Viveroy of India was sunk by a German submarine in the Atlantic in November, 1942, while carrying troops from the United States to England.
Two photographs of the stricken vessel taken from a rescue ship were published in the newspaper, but no details of the sinking or the rescue of troops were given.
The newspaper also told of the sinking of the 20,000 ton Canadian Pacific liner Duchess of Atholl in October, 1942, while enroute from the Near East to Britain with 826 persons aboard, many of them women and children. The passengers abandoned the torpedoed craft in 21 lifeboats without panic, the newspaper said.
